

SINEWESAH 67

An aerial photograph of a school campus. In the foreground, a large, light-colored building with a dark roof and a curved entrance is visible. To its right is a large green field, possibly a sports field. The campus is surrounded by residential areas with houses and trees. In the background, a railway line with several trains is visible. The title "SINEWESAH 67" is overlaid in large white letters at the top.

We the staff of the 1967 Sinewesah dedicate this issue to.....

SCOTT FOXLEY

For your unselfish devotion to not only athletics, but also to the general student body. This devotion stems from your undergraduate days here at PHS as a student, athlete, student body officer, and it is reflected in your interest in the activities of Pasco High School.

In our modest way we therefore dedicate to you the 1967 Sinewesah.

Speaking of school spirit, there's concern about not showing up for the senior class meeting. If it was held, it was a good turnout. Hopefully seniors will have to show up at the next meeting. You'll miss out on graduation announcements.

Linnie Swor, a junior, explained, "There could have been more students there. It shouldn't only be the girls."

Larry More, a sophomore, remarked: "I was at the game but not in the cheering section. I don't know how PHS can improve its sophomore pep. It's up to the individual."

"The pep assembly took a little too much time. It is up to the sophomores because we need their support," Monte Akers.

In my opinion, that really team will go on and games. Through it either way, we will cheer for those people who are the girls. Who are the braver? Let's face it, we feel like cheerleaders. They're afraid to come down on if anybody gets on. You won't have to be out or afraid. This Friday let's come together in the gym and yell for our team on to victory. Kennewick Li

Patriotism Stressed At Girls' State

Pasco High's Evergreen Girls' Staters for 1966 were Eunice Lyso, Barbara Wiseman, and Thelma Longsdorf. The girls were given a first hand opportunity to learn about county, and state government, as well as good citizenship through actual practice. The girls attended Evergreen State, which is sponsored by the Ladies' American Legion Auxiliary at Central Washington State College in Ellensburg. June 13-20.

Each had many wonderful people they had taken part in a party memorating the 20th anniversary of Girls' State. Every evening services were met by all. The food was excellent and the song festival was unforgettable. Each of the girls felt that Girls' State was well worth while. Thelma seemed to express the general feeling when she said, "I became patriotic. Now I really appreciate my country and feel things that I just took for granted. I learned a lot from just meeting the girls."

"This was by far the most inspirational thing I did."

High school days
Have their delights
But they can't compare
With high school nights!

NAME: ANDRÉE HUBERTY

COUNTRY: LUXEMBOURG

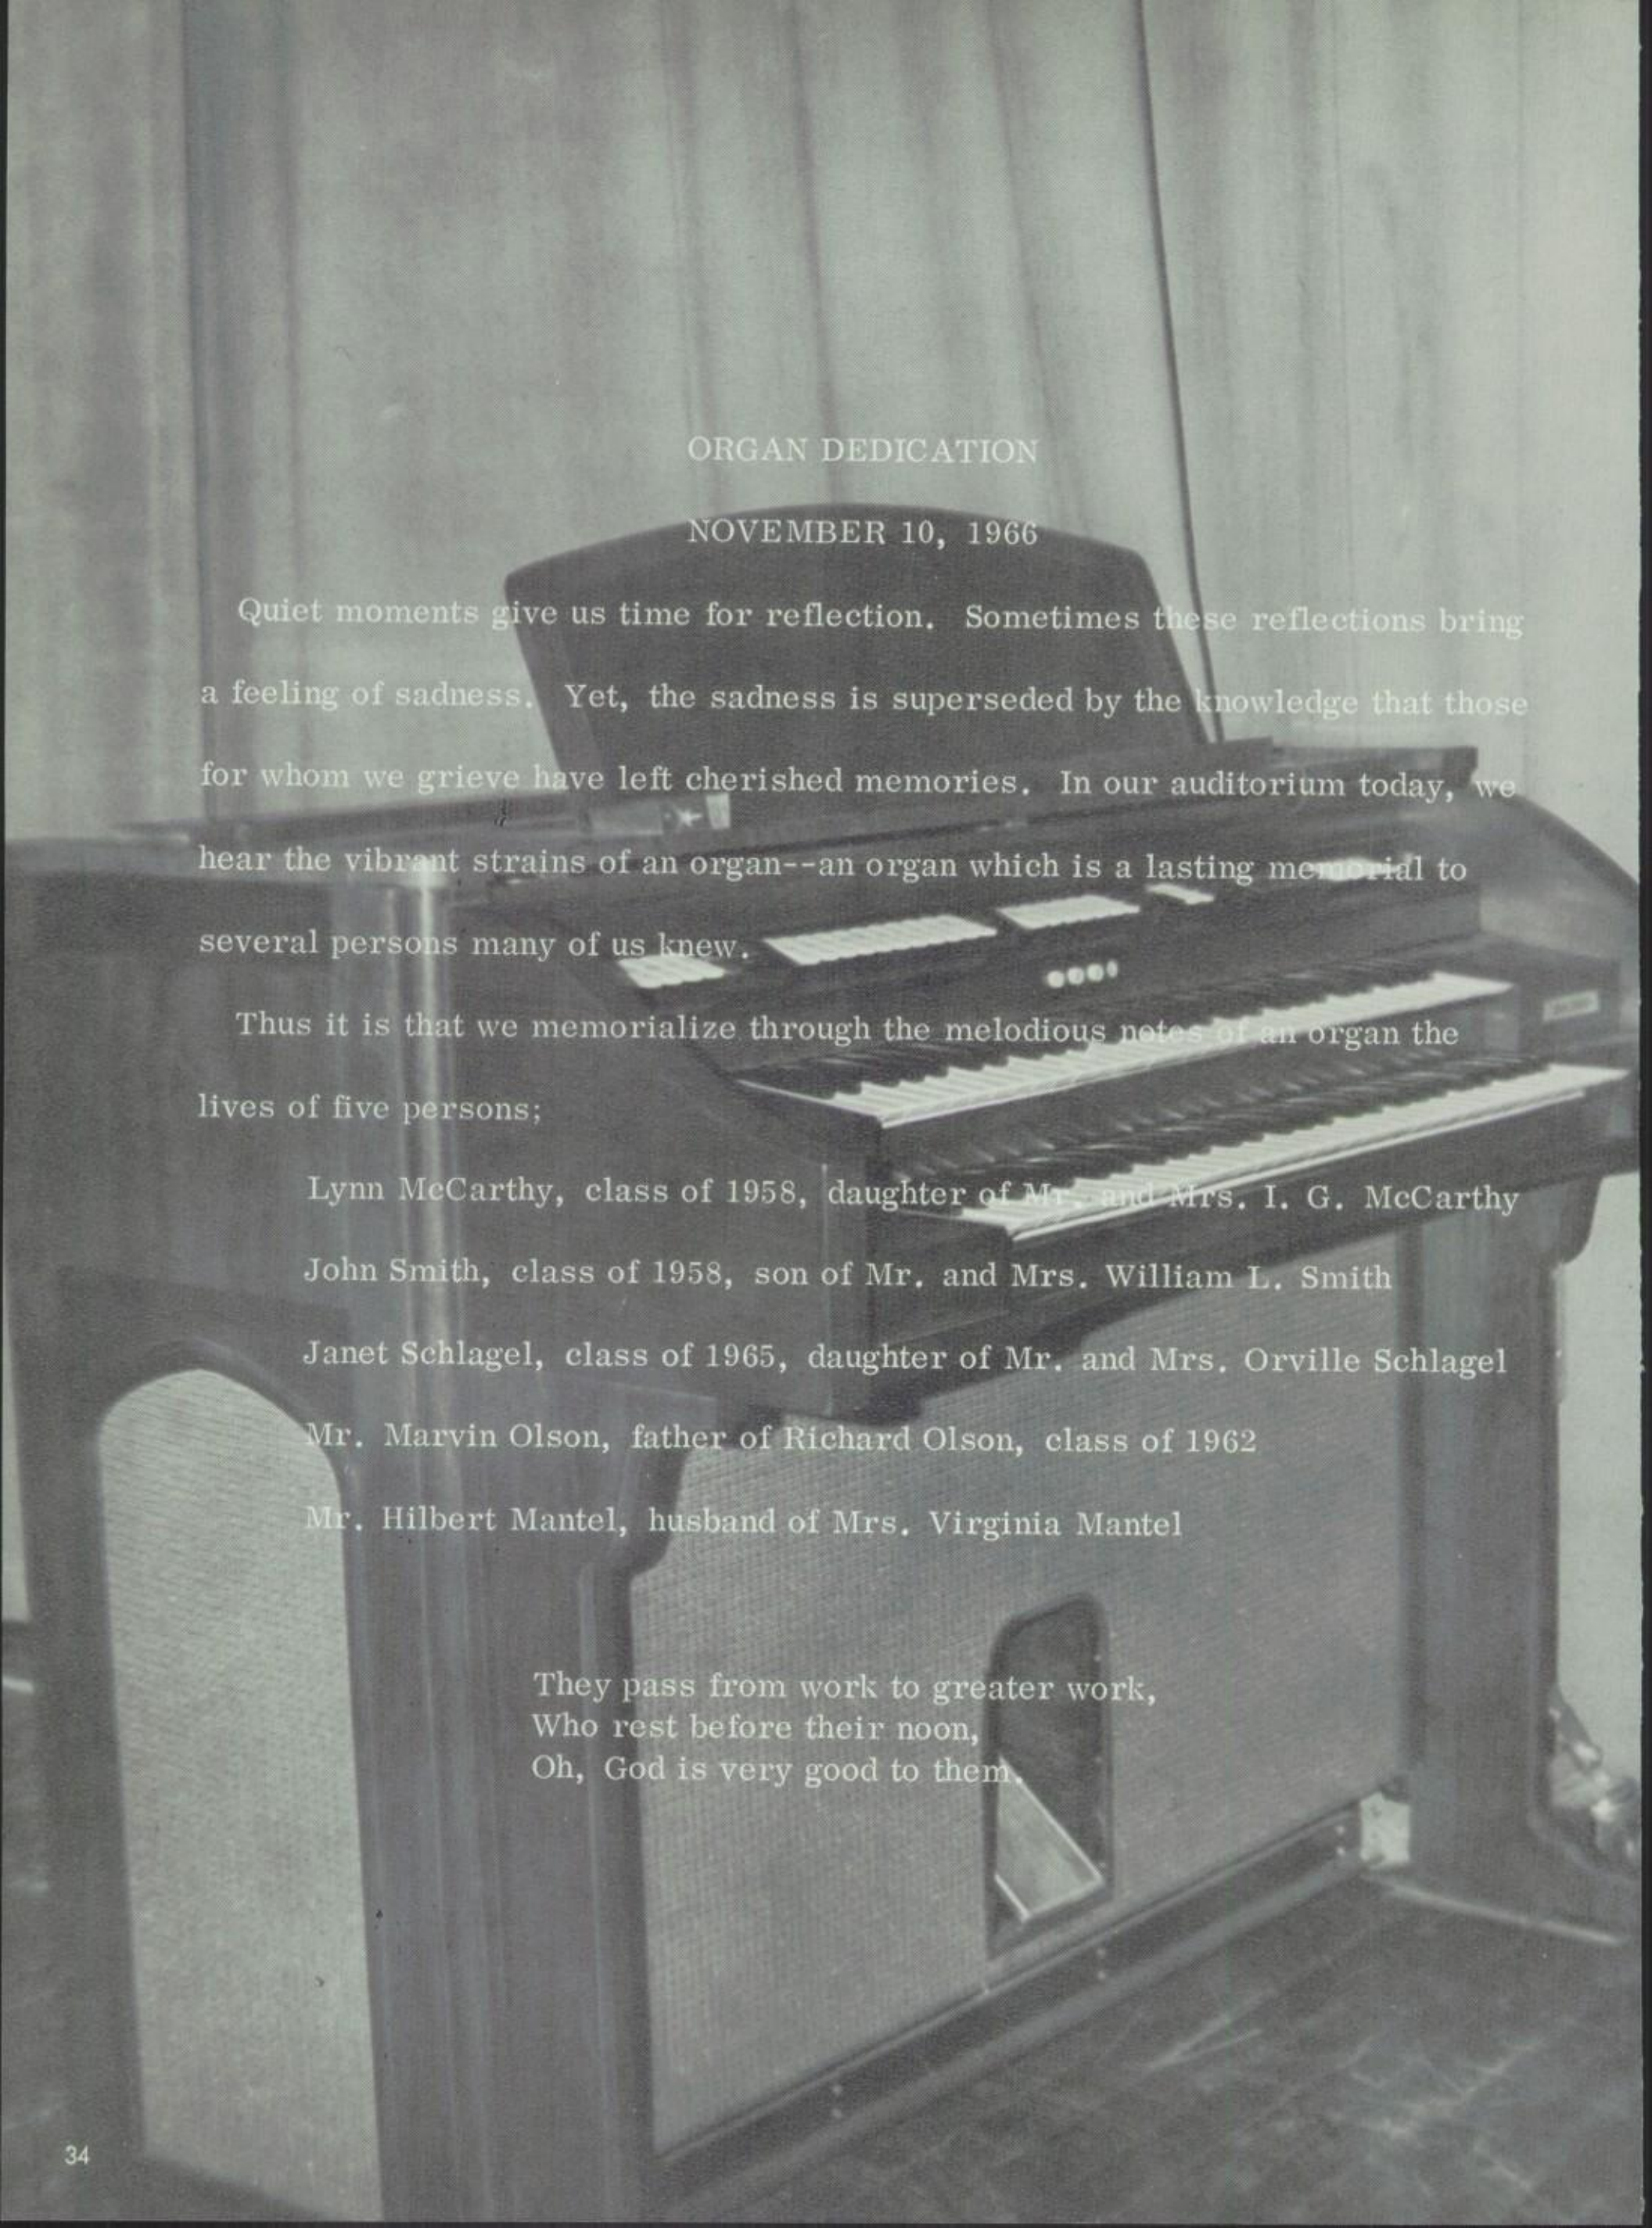

MY IMPRESSION OF PASCO HIGH SCHOOL AND STUDENTS: I like Pasco High School very much and especially it's school system. Teachers and students are really nice and I would like to stay here for more than only a year. Going to an American High School is in my opinion the greatest experience a European student can have.

INTERESTS: My interests here are quite different from those at home. I admire American Football and I'm interested in the way you live here and in your customs, as well as in all the school activities.

WHAT I LIKE TO TAKE BACK TO MY COUNTRY: There are so many things I want to take back with me. First of all, American clothes. I like the blouses and dresses here and then, some of your food, like hamburgers and cheeseburgers. And a wish that can never come true, American schools with their various activities, the students and teachers.

You compliment us Andree, but Pasco High School sincerely thanks you, we will always remember you with fondness for you are a truly wonderful person.

ORGAN DEDICATION

NOVEMBER 10, 1966

Quiet moments give us time for reflection. Sometimes these reflections bring a feeling of sadness. Yet, the sadness is superseded by the knowledge that those for whom we grieve have left cherished memories. In our auditorium today, we hear the vibrant strains of an organ--an organ which is a lasting memorial to several persons many of us knew.

Thus it is that we memorialize through the melodious notes of an organ the lives of five persons;

Lynn McCarthy, class of 1958, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. McCarthy

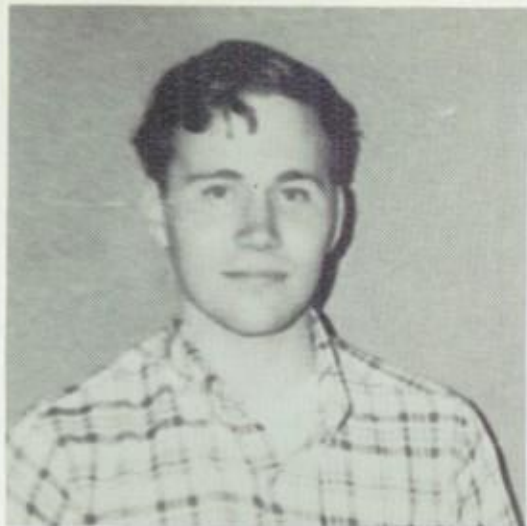

John Smith, class of 1958, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Smith

Janet Schlagel, class of 1965, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Schlagel

Mr. Marvin Olson, father of Richard Olson, class of 1962

Mr. Hilbert Mantel, husband of Mrs. Virginia Mantel

They pass from work to greater work,
Who rest before their noon,
Oh, God is very good to them.

IF

Rudyard Kipling

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

I have enjoyed
being in chemistry
even though I was stupid. Kent Johnson

Mrs. Birdsell,

Not only do I respect
you as a good teacher but I have learned to like you personally as the year went on.
I'm glad I got you for my Chem.
teacher this year but I hope
I never have the luck of getting it again.

Mrs. Birdsell,
Thank you so much for the help
and encouragement
I've given me this past year. I have never would the
through the only teacher. I hope
at PHS and my year is half as
college as rewarding
year in chem. been.
See you again next year,
Janette
